El Señor me ayuda, Por eso no quedaré confundido— Isaías 50:7

ES TODO SOBRE EL CONTROL

Desde la infancia hasta la vejez, crecemos en el dominio de nuestra vida, nuestro cuerpo y nuestro destino. Este dominio es difícil de adquirir, y no lo dejamos escapar con facilidad. Gran parte de este dominio de sí mismos consiste en evitar el dolor o el malestar, así que cuando uno escucha cosas como “cargar con la cruz” y “perder la vida”, la tendencia es a resistir el mensaje. Santiago dice que la fe sin obras es una fe muerta. ¡Ay! ¡Eso es realmente un mensaje directo! Una forma de ver esto, así como lo de perder nuestra vida para encontrarla, es que la fe es tener más y más apertura a Dios como timón de nuestra vida. Es muy difícil para nosotros ceder el control, pero quizás lo que se nos pide es que no nos convirtamos en pasivos y pueriles, sino que dejemos que sea Dios quien dirija el rumbo de nuestro dominio propio y lo que deba lograr. Se nos pide que renunciemos a la necesidad de controlar los resultados de nuestros esfuerzos; que nos arriesguemos, como lo hizo Jesús, a perder todo lo que estamos luchando por lograr. Se nos pide que dejemos que Dios tome la iniciativa y el control de los resultados, aunque nunca podamos verlos. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

¿DEBERÍA IR A MISA ESTA SEMANA?

Muchos fieles luchan con esta pregunta, sobretodo en medio de las últimas noticias del coronavirus. Pero quizás si respondiéramos a la pregunta ¿Por qué debería de ir a Misa? y comprendiéramos las bendiciones de encontrar la Presencia Real de Cristo, obtendríamos la razón de peso para asistir a Misa en persona. La diócesis lanzará una iniciativa de siete semanas para recordar los regalos recibidos al asistir a Misa, ninguno mayor que la Eucaristía. “Es mi más profundo deseo que estas semanas sean para todos nosotros un tiempo para crecer en nuestro amor y comprensión por el sacramento más bello; y al hacer esto, acercarnos más al Dios que nos ha otorgado cada una de las bendiciones que conocemos en este mundo”, afirmó el obispo Robert McElroy. EL fin de semana de hoy el tema es “La Eucaristía es un encuentro directo y personal con Jesucristo” Las homilias grabadas estarán disponibles en sdcatholic.org/eucaristia Por favor compártelos con otros feligreses, amigos y familiares.

Twenty-fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time September 12, 2021

The Lord GOD is my help, therefore I am not disgraced. — Isaiah 50:7

ITS ALL ABOUT CONTROL

From toddlerhood to old age, we grow in mastery of our own lives, our bodies, and our destiny. This mastery is hard won, and we don't let go of autonomy easily. Much of this self-mastery involves the avoidance of pain or discomfort, so when we hear things like "take up your cross" and "lose your life," we tend to resist the message. James says that faith without works is dead. Ouch! That is really a direct message! One way to look at this, as well as the part about losing our life to find it, is that faith is a process of more and more openness to God's direction of our lives. It is very hard for us to give up control, but perhaps what we are being asked to do is not to become passive and babyish, but to allow God to direct where our self-mastery will lead and what it will accomplish. We are asked to relinquish the need to control the results of our efforts; to risk, as Jesus did, the loss of everything we are working to achieve. We are asked to let God take the lead and to control the results, even though we may never see those results. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

THE EXALTATION OF THE HOLY CROSS

The feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross celebrates two historical events: the discovery of the True Cross by Saint Helena, the mother of the Emperor Constantine, in 320 under the temple of Venus in Jerusalem, and the dedication in 335 of the basilica and shrine built on Calvary by Constantine which mark the site of the Crucifixion. However the feast, more than anything else, is a celebration and commemoration of God's greatest work: his salvific death on the Cross and His Resurrection, through which death was defeated and the doors to Heaven opened.

"SHOULD I GO TO MASS THIS WEEKEND?"

Many faithful wrestle with this question, amid the latest news on the coronavirus. But perhaps answering the question, "Why should I go to Mass?" and understanding the blessings of encountering the real presence of Christ will offer the compelling reason to attend Mass in person. To help promote this, the diocese is launching a seven-week program to re-introduce the gifts received when attending Mass, none greater than the Eucharist. "It is my deepest hope that these weeks will be for us all a time to grow in our love for and understanding of this most beautiful sacrament and, in doing so, come closer to the God who has bestowed upon us every blessing we know in this world," Bishop Robert McElroy. The message for this weekend Sept. 11-12 is "The Eucharist is a direct personal encounter with Jesus Christ." The taped homilies will be available on the webpage sdcatholic.org/eucharist at on Sundays along with other resources. Please share them with fellow parishioners, friends and family.
